

OfficePal C40M

Thanks to its extensive adjustment options for ergonomic seating, the OfficePal C40M is the ultimate executive chair for the office or working from home. Whether it's the chair height, the seat depth or the height of the backrest, a full range of adjustments are available for the right sitting position. And with a construction that is completely covered with a mesh material, you can work with ease in any kind of climate.

Features

COMFORT, WHATEVER THE CLIMATE

The OfficePal C40M has a full mesh covering for both the seat base and the backrest, providing durability as well as pleasant sitting whatever the temperature or humidity.

EXTENSIVE CHAIR ADJUSTMENTS

For the best possible ergonomics, the OfficePal C40M has adjustments for the chair height, the tilt angle and the seat depth. In addition, the backrest can be positioned to one of five different heights.

GOOD SUPPORT FOR HEAD AND LUMBAR

To optimally support a healthy sitting posture, there is also an integrated lumbar support as well as a height- and angle-adjustable headrest.

4D ARMRESTS

The armrests of the OfficePal C40M can be fully adjusted in four directions to provide the ideal posture for the arms and upper body.

TILT MECHANISM

The OfficePal C40M also has a tilt mechanism on board for an optimal reclining position and a comfortable rocking motion to help relieve stress at work.

PERFECT HOLD

With a combination of a stable nylon five-star base, a class-4 gas lift piston and five large 60 mm wheels, the OfficePal C40M is optimally designed for a high load of up to 150 kg.
